GREATER WAIKATO RAILWAY MODELLERS CLUB EXHIBITION

Yesterday we were lucky enough to have Phil Murray and Paul Murphy and some other members of the Greater Waikato Railway Modellers Club visit our school with some shunting puzzles. The children had the opportunity to play with the puzzles and get an idea about what it is like to work with model trains. Over Labour Weekend the club will be holding an exhibition of 14 different model train setups at Castle Pamela in Tirau and part of the money raised over the weekend will be donated to Tirau Primary School. We have been given 2 family passes which were drawn out and won by Mason D - Ruma Kiwi & Liam C – Ruma Tui. If either family is unable to attend can they please return the pass to the school and we will redraw it.

MARKET DAY NEXT WEDNESDAY 26th SEPTEMBER 11:00 am – 1:00pm

Our classes have been a hive of activity getting their products ready for our market day next Wednesday. Calendar Art will also be on display in the classrooms for you to view before making your orders for these great Christmas presents. All purchases from the class stalls will be by ticket, which will be able to be purchased from Mrs Leonard. We will have eftpos available. The calendar art order forms will be in the classrooms and this money is separate to the Market Day so please return your order form and money to school next term. During the morning there will also be a Gymnastics Display, a Jump Jam display.

The final of our School Talent quest will be held at the end of Market Day at approximately 1:15 pm in the Learning Centre. We will be running an amended timetable on the day with an earlier lunch at 12:50. The children will be able to visit the stalls during morning tea and with their family if they are visiting the market, just go and collect them from their class.

As well as the class stalls there will be a sausage sizzle and cake stall run by the PTA. You will have to use cash for their items. Please drop your donated cakes off before school or bring them along when you come to market day. The students will be able to purchase sausages at lunchtime.

Because of the huge effort in organising the market day there will be NO ASSEMBLY NEXT FRIDAY

MUFTI DAY – NEXT THURSDAY 27TH SEPTEMBER

Our wonderful PTA are holding a mufti day next Thursday. The children can come to school dressed in mufti for a gold coin donation.
